The school counsellor's task entails supporting the students, parents, and staff of the GSIS Primary School and Kindergarten. This will be achieved through individual and small group counselling as well as preventive classroom teaching. The school counsellor will work in a team of counsellors to achieve a comprehensive school counselling program that addresses the personal and social development of all students. Parents, students and teachers may approach the counsellor for advice and help regarding any social emotional issues.

What is required and what we're looking for:

- Relevant Degree in Counselling or Social work required
- Teaching Qualification and school experience preferred
- Dual Language ability (Mandarin and German) desirable; English fluency essential
- Strong advisory skills and experience in the design and implementation of projects
- Ability to take initiative and to work independently
- Prior experience in a similar role or related field preferred
- Knowledge of safeguarding and child protection practice and protocols

What we offer

GSIS offers an excellent working environment in an international school within a dynamic community. You will be working with excellent students with outstanding academic results. Our employees work in a "high trust" environment where they are afforded responsibility without being micro-managed. Professional development and continuous learning are actively encouraged. We welcome candidates who show a commitment to continuous professional development and are willing to contribute to wider school activities.
